2 You will have the property and the furniture for 6 months

From _____ to 12am on _____

If, at the end of this time, you want to continue the tenancy and you have not already received from us two months' notice to end the tenancy, it will carry on from month to month as a monthly contractual tenancy. You must give one months notice to end it. This notice must be given to expire on a rent payment day.

3 This agreement is an assured shorthold tenancy (as defined in section 19A of the housing ACT 1988). The arrangements in section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 for the landlord to repossess the property apply to this agreement. This means that you cannot claim any legal right to stay on once the tenancy has ended and a court order says you must leave. The landlord giving a section 21 notice must give at least two months' notice, in writing. For more information, you should consult a Housing Advice Centre, solicitor or Citizens' Advice Bureau who will tell you what this means.

4 We will let the property to you (individually and together) and only will be allowed to live there.

5 No children are allowed to live in the property without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold)

6 No animals are allowed in the property without our permission, in writing.

7 You have to pay a deposit of 1 months rent (you will not receive interest on it).

You will get it back when this agreement ends and you leave the property, as long as you have kept to all the agreements and conditions and you have paid all the rent and bills for the property. If you do not do so, we may take from your deposit any rent legally owed to us, or other money legally owed to us, reasonable compensation if you have broken any of your agreements, or the reasonable cost of making good any damage which is not caused by fair wear and tear. We are entitled to keep the deposit until you have produced satisfactory proof that you have paid for the utility bills (electricity, gas, water and phone) for the property. If you fail to do so, we may pay any charges you owe from your deposit. If we cannot agree amounts for any breach, the matter will be decided by the County Court.

8 You cannot use the deposit to pay for rent under this agreement.

9 If you owe rent or any other money legally payable to us under the agreement, you will have to pay interest on this amount from the date that it should have been paid. The interest rate is 3% above the base rate used by the Royal Bank of Scotland. This rate may apply before, as well as after, a court judgement has been made against you, depending on the terms of the court judgement.

10 We may keep keys to the property.

11 The landlord may remove, store, sell or otherwise of any furniture or goods which the tenant refuses or fails to remove from the property at the end of the tenancy. The tenant shall be responsible for all reasonable cost, which the landlord may incur. The landlord shall be entitled to deduct such costs and any monies lawfully due to the landlord from any money realised from the disposal of such furniture or goods.

If you fail to do this within the period of notice given, we may then enter the property (after giving you 24 hours' notice in writing) and carry out the work- you will have to pay us for the reasonable cost of this work.
- 6 Pay for all phone bills, relating to the properties that apply during the period of tenancy.
